3. to the extent feasible, satisfy itself as to the integrity of the CEO and other executive officers of Cardinal and that the CEO and other executive officers create a culture of integrity throughout Cardinal.

Board Process/Effectiveness

1. Annually review and re-assess the adequacy of the mandates of the Board and its committees and implement such amendments to those mandates as are necessary or desirable;
2. consider and, if thought fit, approve requests from directors, committees of directors or from the engagement of special advisors from time to time;
3. review on a periodic basis the composition of the Board to ensure that an appropriate number of independent directors sit on the Board and each committee and analyze the needs of the Board and recommending nominees who meet such needs;
4. assess at least annually, the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the committees of the Board and the contribution of individual directors, including considering the appropriate size of the Board;
5. approve the nomination of directors;
6. provide a comprehensive orientation to each new director;
7. establish an appropriate system of corporate governance including practices to ensure the Board functions independently of management;
8. attempt to ensure that Board materials are distributed to directors in advance of regularly scheduled meetings to allow for sufficient review of the materials prior to the meeting. Directors are expected to attend all Board meetings;

9. establish committees and approve their respective mandates and the limits of authority delegated to each committee;
10. review the adequacy and form of the directors' compensation to ensure it realistically reflects the responsibilities and risks involved in being a director;
11. the Board may delegate its duties to, and receive reports and recommendations from, any committee of the Board;
12. each member of the Board is expected to understand the nature and operations of Cardinal's business, and have an awareness of the political, economic and social trends prevailing in all countries or regions in which Cardinal operates, or is contemplating potential operations; and
13. in addition to the above, adherence to all other Board responsibilities as set forth in Cardinal's By-Laws, any other material agreements to which the Corporation is a party, applicable policies and practices and other statutory and regulatory obligations, such as issuance of securities, etc., is expected.

Meetings and Administrative Matters

1. The time at which and place where the meetings of the Board shall be held and the calling of meetings and the procedure in all respects at such meetings shall be determined by the Board, unless otherwise determined by the by-laws of the Corporation.
2. Agendas, approved by the Chairman will be circulated to Board members along with background information on a timely basis prior to Board meetings.
3. The Board may invite such officers, directors and employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries as it sees fit from time to time to attend at meetings of the Board and assist in the discussion and consideration of the matters being considered by the Board.
4. Minutes of the Board will be recorded and maintained.
5. If determined appropriate, following meetings of the Board, a list of tasks or matters to be followed up upon shall be prepared including the time table for completion thereof and the responsibility for completion, the status of which matter shall be reviewed at the next meeting of the Board or as otherwise determined by the Board.
6. The Board may retain persons having special expertise and/or obtain independent professional advice to assist in fulfilling its responsibilities at such compensation as established by the Board and at the expense of Cardinal.
7. Independent directors shall meet regularly, and in no case less frequently than quarterly, without non-independent directors and management participation.

Approved by the Board of Directors effective March 22, 2019.
